

Bedford Democratic Committee Endorses Candidates for Town Board & Westchester County Legislature

Incumbents Bobbi Bittker, Ellen Calves, Tom Catoliato & Erika Pierce Earn Unanimous Support

February 27, 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - The Bedford Democratic Committee (BDC) has announced its endorsement of candidates for the 2023 campaign season. Currently all incumbents, each candidate is experienced, tested, and an active member of the Bedford community. Seeking reelection are Supervisor Ellen Calves of Katonah, Councilmembers Bobbi Bittker of Bedford Hills and Tom Catoliato of Bedford Village, as well as Westchester District 2 County Legislator Erika Pierce of Katonah, all of whom were unanimously endorsed.

“These officials, who were duly elected by a majority of voters across Bedford, have served the community well by developing and enacting policies and legislation to improve the environment, manage a responsible budget, enhance public infrastructure and boost public safety, all while holding the line on taxes, clearly deserve to be re-elected,” says BDC Chair Mark Dembo. “Their proven track record and commitment to delivering innovative and effective nonpartisan local government results will keep Bedford moving forward together.”

“The Bedford Democratic Committee is excited to support these candidates in their important work in our town and county government,” Dembo adds. “Their accomplishments, goals and community dedication are congruent with the values of constituents across each of Bedford’s hamlets, and the BDC will work diligently to help them get reelected in November.”

To appear on the ballot, candidates need to collect signatures from registered Democrats in the town of Bedford. The collection period begins February 28 and runs through April 2.
